According to the Herald Newspaper, 25-78, in Rio they reported him missing and presumed by the BPI that he may have been arrested and handed over to the Argentine authorities. Habegger was deputy editor and later editor of the newspaper Noticias, which was the official mouthpiece of the Peronist leftwing and often spoke for the Montoneros terrorists.
Argentine Ambassador to Brazil, Oscar Camilion, said on August 19th was the last time he had knowledge of Habegger. Date of des: August 3-78 while passing through Rio on his way to Madrid. (over)

Released from Villa Devoto prison on 10-12-77 with other 20 women. She had been arrested in April 1975 and released because they found her innocent of all charges. Previously she was arrested in 1974 and was in jail for some 6-8 months. She again was released. This time when she was released they did not return her Cedula and other documents, they told her her father Roberto had to come to get them. Family is concerned for the safety of Adriana thinking that it might be dangerous for her to remain in Buenos Aires.
